

Trigger Warnings in Canadian Post Secondary Classes

Participants Needed for Research on Content Warnings in Canadian Post-Secondary Classrooms

You are eligible if you are:

- A current or recent Faculty Member (including Sessional Lecturers and Teaching Assistants) at a Canadian Post-Secondary Institution.
- A current or recent student at a Canadian Post-Secondary Institution (undergraduate or graduate).

Participation Includes:

- Taking a confidential and anonymous 30-minute online survey.
- You will have the option to opt into Phase 2 of the study, which includes individual interviews.

In appreciation of your time, you will be entered into a draw to win one of 50 $25 gift certificates for Chapters/Indigo.

Take the Survey Here

If you would like more information, contact researchers, or contact the PI, Michelle Miller at content.warnings.study@gmail.com

This research study has been reviewed and approved by the Ontario College of Art and Design University Research Ethics Board (2020-44) as well as Brock University (REB-20-040) and Concordia University (REB-30013515) and is funded by a SSHRC Insight Grant. If you have concerns regarding participation in this study, please contact OCADU's REB Secretariat at 416.977.6000 x4368 or cpineda@ocadu.ca